Additional Information:
Emphases:
The emphases listed below have been suggested by the appropriate division for students who want to transfer to a four-year program in these areas. The liberal arts elective and the free elective credits within the Liberal Arts/Humanities-Social Science degree can be applied toward courses in a chosen emphasis.

Students should consult the catalog of their transfer institution as early as possible to determine additional requirements. If the transfer institution has a foreign language requirement, it is recommended that students try to fulfill it before transfer. Additional information regarding transfer is available on http://www.suny.edu/attend/get-started/transfer-students/suny-transfer-p... [5]

ADOLESCENCE EDUCATION: See Adolescence Education English concentration (for those interested in English). It is important that students interested in adolescence education meet with an advisor during their first semester of college. There are very specific requirements for an adolescence education degree that, if not carefully planned out during the first 2 years of college, could greatly lengthen the time required to earn a bachelor's degree.

ART HISTORY: See Fine Arts AS or ART 102, ART 106, ARH 111, ARH 112, ARH 113, ART History or ART Studio Elective, World Languages.

ART STUDIO: See Fine Arts AS or Art Studio Concentration

CREATIVE WRITING: See Creative Writing AA

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION: See Early Childhood/Childhood concentration. It is important that students interested in elementary education meet with an advisor during their first semester of college. There are very specific requirements for an elementary education degree that, if not carefully planned out during the first 2 years of college, could greatly lengthen the time required to earn a bachelor's degree.
