

Student Code of Conduct

The Student Code of Conduct exists as a means to protect the rights of all students and faculty while also holding individual members to the same standards of respect, courtesy, integrity and responsibility. The Code also provides students accused of violations the right to due process. It is in the best interest of all students to review their rights and responsibilities as laid out in the Code of Conduct. The Code can be located in the Student Handbook and is also available online at <http://www.sunyacc.edu/studentlife/handbook> [1].

Title IX??

“No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.”

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual violence, in any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance. For more information, including policies and resources, please visit the College's website: www.sunyacc.edu/title9 [2]. If you would like to report an incident or simply wish to speak to someone in person, please contact Lottie Jameson, Title IX Coordinator, at TitleIX@sunyacc.edu [3] or by calling 518-743-7735
