NOTES:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> The Performance Concentration involves 8 credits (taken in 2-credit blocks for each of 4 semesters) of MUS 130 Private Instruction all in one instrument or voice (chosen by the student), with the intent that this will be the primary musical skill in which the student will focus. Ensembles must correspond to the major area of focus as designated by the Music Department. Admittance into performing ensembles is at the discretion of the appropriate conductor/coach. Four credits must be in a large ensemble appropriate to the primary instrument. Four credits must be in a small ensemble appropriate to the primary instrument.

Notes on Music AS (MUSI)

Placement Information:

1. Music AS program 4 semester layout is Fall-start only. Many of the core MUS courses are fall only and spring only and must occur in the required sequence.
2. Placement into MUS 117, MUS 119 and MUS 124 is contingent upon successful completion of music placement tests. There will be a written test and an individual appointment with MUS faculty. Students will be tested on music theory, listening skills and vocal skills.
3. Placement test dates and times will be coordinated with the fall registration Accepted Student Days. Not every Accepted Student Day event will include Music placement testing.
4. Any student who does not pass the placement test and wants to be full-time, shall be enrolled as a Liberal Arts Humanities and Social Science AA major. These students, full or part-time, should be encouraged to contact the Music Department so faculty are aware of their interest in the Music AS program.
5. There is no repeat of the placement test. Any student who does not pass the placement test must successfully complete the following coursework to receive permission to enroll in MUS 117, MUS 119 and MUS 124:
 - a. MUS 103, with a C or better
 - b. MUS 115 and MUS 116, with a C or better
 - c. MUS 130 – Private Instruction – Voice, with a C or better
 - d. MUS 130 – Private Instruction – Instrument, with a C or better
6. In general, a student classified as having a strong music background has:
 - a. 3-5 years progressive musical experience
 - b. Has received music instruction within the last 2 years
